

A photograph of a beach with waves crashing onto the shore. The sand is golden-brown and has several footprints. The water is a vibrant blue, and the foam of the waves is white. The text is overlaid on the image.

There is no foot too small,
that it cannot leave

The Living Memorial - Ōtukaikino Reserve

For every funeral we arrange, a native plant is established in our unique Living Memorial reserve at Ōtukaikino, a place of commemoration for family and friends to visit. Ōtukaikino provides a unique space for remembrance and an opportunity to connect to the memory of someone we love via a tangible planting.

In spring each year, we hold a Memorial Weekend where there will be times available for you and your family to attend a formal dedication of the trees. Following the dedication there will be an opportunity for those who wish to be involved with planting and site tours.
